This is now fixed for 0800 in John Scarlett's office tomorrow morning, followed by her intelligence briefing at 0900, during which she will pass on her comments to John. John will pass on her comments to us after that.

The PM has asked Ann Taylor to read through the dossier in draft and give us any comments. He stressed that it was for her only and that no one else outside this building was seeing it in draft.

I am contacting John Scarlett to work out how this should happen - needs to be tomorrow. She is in any case having her intelligence briefing at 0900 tomorrow.
